DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 23-32 in the reply filed on 10-13-05 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 1-22, 33-38 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 10-13-05.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 23 is objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 23, line 3, the applicant is advised to change "trailer articulated together during use," to --trailer, said tractor and trailer articulated together during use,-- for clarity. The applicant is further advised to change "comprising" to -- comprising: -- for clarity. The applicant is further advised to change "on said same angle" to -- on said same side are angled -- for clarity.

4. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3663

6. Claims 24, and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 24, the applicant claims “about fifty-six degrees”, and in claim 25, the applicant claims “about eighty-three degrees”. These limitations are indefinite. The clause “about” does not specifically state the number of degrees the applicant is seeking to protect. That is 45, 50, 51, 55, etc can be considered to be close to or “about” 56 degrees by one person, but not by another person.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 23-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rost (6217177).

Regarding claim 23, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) discloses a transducer bar 5 having a longitudinal extent and a centerline (see where the #5 arrow is pointing at) for attaching to a tractor 1 (figs. 3 & 10) to facilitate in calculations of an angle (col. 13, lines 19+) between said tractor 1 and a trailer 3 articulated together during use, comprising:

a plurality of transducers 6, 7, 8 (fig. 10) arranged substantially symmetrically about said centerline, each transducer having an angular orientation relative to said longitudinal extent substantially dissimilar to adjacent transducers on a same side of said centerline (fig. 10, col. 10, lines 53-58), wherein an innermost transducer 8a and an outermost transducer 8b on said same side are angled in opposite directions relative to said centerline.

Regarding claim 24, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) discloses the transducer bar of claim 23, wherein said angular orientation of said outermost transducer is about fifty-six degrees (col. 10, lines 53-58).

Regarding claim 25, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) discloses transducer bar of claim 23, wherein said angular orientation of said innermost transducer is about eighty-three degrees.

Regarding claim 26, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) transducer bar of claim 23, wherein said angular orientation of said innermost transducer is substantially larger than said angular orientation of said outermost transducer.

Regarding claim 27, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) transducer bar of claim 23, wherein an intermediate transducer between said innermost transducer and said outermost transducer angles in a same direction as said outermost transducer.

Regarding claim 28, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) transducer bar of claim 27, wherein said intermediate transducer exists substantially closer to said outermost transducer than said innermost transducer.

Regarding claim 29, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) transducer bar of claim 27, wherein said angular orientation of said innermost transducer is substantially larger than said angular orientation of said intermediate transducer.

Art Unit: 3663

Regarding claim 30, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) transducer bar of claim 29, wherein said angular orientation of said intermediate transducer is substantially larger than said angular orientation of said outermost transducer.

Regarding claim 31, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) transducer bar of claim 30, wherein said angular orientation of said innermost transducer is about eighty-three degrees, said angular orientation of said intermediate transducer is about sixty-nine degrees and said angular orientation of said outermost transducer is about fifty-six degrees.

Regarding claim 32, Rost (abstract; fig. 10, col. 8, lines 35-46) transducer bar of claim 23, further including a plurality of housings that angularly hold said each transducer relative to a surface of said transducer bar.
